Grace Medical Home Announces Four New Members to Join Board of Directors, Orlando, FL: Grace Medical Home announced today that Bethany Goodman, APRN, Dr. Bryce Hagedorn, Paul Scheck, and Yvonne Sweeney have joined the Board of Directors.

Bethany Goodman, APRN began volunteering at Grace in 2017 and has volunteered more than 500 hours as a Pediatric APRN. Originally from Orlando, Bethany received a Bachelors and Masters in Nursing at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Nursing. Previously, Bethany served as a medical missionary at the Kilimanjaro Christian Medical Center in Tanzania, a Nurse Educator at the UNC School of Nursing, and as a Pediatric Nurse at the Carolinas Medical Center.

W. Bryce Hagedorn, PhD, LMHC, NCC, MAC, QCS currently serves as a Professor of Counselor Education and Program Coordinator in the University of Central Florida's Department of Counselor Education and School Psychology. In his role, he oversees more than 300 graduate students in a CACREP-accredited and nationally ranked counselor education program. Bryce received his BA in Psychology from the University of Illinois at Chicago, his Master's in Counselor Education from the University of Central Florida, and his PhD in Counseling and Counselor Education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Paul Scheck, JD, is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where is a member of the Labor and Employment Practice Group. A Martindale Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Paul has been named one of the Best Lawyers in America® in Labor and Employment Law. He has worked with employers and human resources professionals for almost 20 years, and has assisted them through many labor and employment challenges, from corporate policies to wage and hour matters, non-compete claims to discrimination and harassment cases, ADA Title II accessibility claims to unfair labor practice charges. Paul received his JD from the University of Florida's Levin College of Law and is an active member of the Orange County Bar Association.

Yvonne Sweeney serves as vice president of Human Resources and Diversity & Inclusion for several growth businesses within the Disney Parks, Experiences and Products segment of The Walt Disney Company. She leads a team of Human Resources professionals who support a wide spectrum of the Disney vacation empire, from cruise ships and vacation-ownership resorts, to luxury homes, guided family adventures and global facilities and operations services. Before being named to her current role in June 2012, Yvonne served as director of Human Resources for Facilities & Operations Services. She also provided direction and support for the teams responsible for pricing, revenue management and forecasting for Disney's theme park, hotel, food and beverage and merchandise businesses. In the Central Florida community, Yvonne is a Founding Trustee and Member of the Board of Directors for the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro Orlando. Yvonne earned a bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University and lives in Orlando with her husband, Gregg, and their two children.

Grace Medical Home provides comprehensive primary care for low income, uninsured men, women and children who do not qualify for Medicare, Medicaid or secured health insurance through the affordable health care act.

Our Mission: To be a medical home reflecting the heart of Christ by offering the highest level of health care to those in our community who need it most.
